

Former Dallas Cowboys running back Marion Barber III arrested in Prosper

Former Dallas Cowboys running back Marion Barber III was arrested in Prosper Wednesday night and charged with two counts of criminal mischief, according to Denton County jail records. Barber posted a bond of $2,010 and was later released, according to jail records. WFAA has asked the Prosper Police Department for more information but has not heard back yet. Barber was drafted by Dallas out of the University of Minnesota in the fourth round of the 2005 NFL Draft. He played six seasons for the Cowboys and scored 16 touchdowns in 2006. He had a career-high 975 rushing yards in 2007. After leaving the Cowboys in 2011, Barber signed with the Chicago Bears where he played one season before retiring in 2012.

A former top aide to Secretary of State Mike Pompeo told Congress on Wednesday that he

Without the wide receiver, Amari Cooper will the Cowboys' young offensive core be together for very

The so-called hidden yards are exceptionally elusive for Dallas.

Packers running back Aaron Jones has been fined more than $10,000 for waving goodbye to

Twice this year, Cowboys owner Jerry Jones has insisted that coach Jason Garrett would be in high

Analytics are all the rage, and the Cowboys are in on it.

President Trump had lunch on Saturday with Rudolph W. Giuliani amid revelations that

Without the wide receiver, Amari Cooper will the Cowboys' young offensive core be together for very

It is an extraordinary time in Washington, but it is more or less business as usual for Rudolph W.